(By International News Service.)

London, Aug. 26, 3:51 P. M.—It is officially announced that Togoland (Germany's South African possession) surrendered to the British today, unconditionally.

London, Aug. 26.—With France's fate officially admitted as hanging in the balance the appalling conflict is again raging in southwestern Belgium, with Charleroi as the pivotal scene of carnage.

The allies opened offensively, pounding away at the German lines north of the river Sambre. Three fleets of Zephelins are reported hovering in the background, awaiting the word to strike.

Uhlans are reported rushing toward Douai, France, 18 miles over the border. It is expected that the French and British detachments there are already giving them battle.

The Germans, with three of the Namur forts in their possession are thundering at the remaining works. Fierce hand-to-hand conflicts marked the brunt of the battle at Charleroi between Prussian guards and French Turcos—Algerian troops.

England Needs More Troops. Premier Asquith stated in parliament today that "Lord Kitchener needs all the men he can get. It is a mistake to think that only 100,000 men are needed."

Answering other questions, the premier said the British soldiers would not be compelled to go abroad.

Belgian Minister Protests. Washington, Aug. 26.—Minister Havenith, of Belgium, requests Secretary Bryan to protest to Germany against further Zephelein bombardments of Antwerp, claiming that this is a violation of the Hague convention. Secretary Bryan said he would consider the request, but without endangering America's neutrality. The protest is based on a cable reciting Zephelein activity, saying that, besides the dead and wounded, the material damage is enormous.

German Prince Killed. Berlin, Aug. 26.—Lieutenant General Prince Frederick, of Saxe Meiningen, was killed by the bursting of a shell at Namur on August 23.

Allies Assume Aggressive. Paris, Aug. 26.—It was officially announced today that "British reinforcements are coming to France." This revives discouraged Paris.

It was also announced that the allies have resumed the aggressive in Lorraine.

This is the first mention of the allies as being in Lorraine, indicating that the British expedition is much larger than is generally known. Public feeling is at a high tension because it is known that the misconduct

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS IN REUNION AT GRAMPAN

The annual reunion of the union soldiers and sailors of Clearfield county was held at Grampian yesterday. There was a large attendance from all over the county. The dinner for the visitors was prepared by the women of Grampian and was good in every respect.

After the dinner exercises were held at the platform, presided over by W. P. Mahaffey. The exercises were opened with a prayer. The address of welcome was given by H. E. Clarey, a Spanish-American war veteran, and the response by J. A. Johnson, of DuBois, a civil war veteran. Addresses were made by Rev. Hawkins, the Baptist minister of Curwensville, Hon. Frank G. Harris, Esq., and by A. H. Woodward, Esq. The music was furnished by the Grampian band and a choir selected for the occasion.

The general opinion was that the reunion was one of the finest and most successful that has ever been held.

GERMANS IN TOGOLAND READY TO SURRENDER

London, Aug. 26.—Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons this morning that the Germans in Togoland, Africa, have offered to capitulate on certain terms. "We have demanded unconditional surrender," Asquith added. "Our troops occupy the important position."

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD FLOWER SHOW ON FRIDAY

The Woman's club will hold a flower show on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The show will be held at the public playground, if the weather is favorable, but if the day is rainy it will be held in the High school building.

Early in the spring flower seeds were given to about 30 children to plant and raise flowers for the contest to be held in the late summer, and the club is now ready for it. Everyone is invited to be present, and all the members of the club are especially urged to attend the show.

Hoboken, N. J., Aug. 26.—The Wilson liner, San Francisco, under the British flag with a cargo of six thousand tons, principally grain, sailed for Hull, England, today.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AND IMMENSE PARADE

The convention of the Clearfield County Sabbath School association, which opened at Osceola Mills on Tuesday is attracting large crowds daily. The proceedings of Tuesday afternoon were full of inspiration for the delegates and visitors, the review of the work of the year by the president of the association, "Notes of the Field" by Rev. O. B. Poulson, and the other papers were very interesting.

The big parade last evening was a spectacle such as Osceola has seldom seen. Over 300 persons were in line and three bands furnished music. The speaker of the evening was Rev. George G. Rowley, of Lewisport. The singing was under the direction of Prof. Weaver, who was with Evangelists Johnson during the tabernacle meetings. The event will long be remembered by those who participated in the demonstration. The program of the convention today was an interesting one, papers on topics pertaining to work in the Sunday schools being read and addresses made by prominent leaders in Sabbath school activities.

A Telegram From Peking States That the Attack of the British and Japanese Has Failed and That a Regular Siege Would Have to be Started—Unbusiness at Washington Over the Probable Extension of Japanese Activities Beyond the Orient—Filipinos Fear That the Japanese May Make Trouble for Them in the Southern Pacific.

Peking, Aug. 26.—The Germans in resisting the combined Japanese-British naval attack on Tsing-Tau, killed a number of British torpedo flotilla sailors, one shell striking the destroyer Kenne, damaging it and killing three.

The attacking warships are unable to get close to the place on account of the German destroyers.

The Japanese are still landing troops at Haiyanghsien for a land attack in the rear.

Attack Said to Have Failed.

New York, Aug. 26.—Count Von Bernstorff, German ambassador to America, today received an official telegram from Peking announcing that the Japanese attack on Kiaochow has failed.

"In consequence, the dispatch says, 'they must start regular siege operations.'"

Washington Worried. Washington, Aug. 26.—The Japanese government may be drawn into the war outside of the Far East, according to an attaché of the Japanese embassy. He said: "Despite Japan's announcement to the United States that she would not engage in the war outside of the Orient, the chances are that if her ally, England, needs assistance elsewhere, it will be a difficult matter for us to refuse to extend assistance."

The issuance of another proclamation of neutrality by the United States is being considered to cover the declaration of war between Japan and Germany. A change in the verbiage in this proclamation is being considered.

Germans Well Fortified. Although Japan sent a note to the German colony in Kiaochow, asking surrender to prevent bloodshed, it today appeared that bombardment would be necessary before the fort would surrender. Japan is rushing two fleet and one hundred thousand troops to attack Tsing-Tau by land and water. The Germans have thrown out barbed wire entanglements and mined all approaches.

Filipinos Are Afraid. Manila, Aug. 26.—Japanese aggression against Kiaochow is intimidating the Filipinos and is creating widespread unrest among them. The natives fear that the United States will become involved in the European war as a result of Japan's action.

The political leaders among the Filipinos are now apathetic regarding the Jones bill, introduced in congress in Washington and providing for a greater measure and self-government in the Philippines.

AUSTRIANS THROUGH BARRIERS OVER THE RIVER SAVA

Nish, Serbia, Aug. 26, via London. —Serbian troops recaptured Nish (Shabatz) at 4 o'clock this afternoon of Monday, August 25, according to official announcements made today.

The Austrians have been thrown back on the other bank of the River Sava, and every bit of Serbian territory has now been cleared of the enemy. The announcement noted that the retreating Austrians devastated Serbian villages and murdered the inhabitants.

Sabac is on the river Sava, seven miles west of Belgrade. The Austrians occupied Sabac August 14, after a big battle with the Serbs.

Holy War Threatened by the Musselmans

Washington, Aug. 26.—There is uneasiness in official circles over information from Ambassador Morgenthau, at Constantinople, that Turkish Musselmans are threatening a Holy war. It is feared the European upheaval may bring about the massacre of Christians in Turkish dominions. Great restlessness in the Mohammedan world is reported.

The warships North Carolina and Tennessee may be rushed to the Bosphorus, as Europe is practically powerless to act in the matter.

DEATH OF MOTHER OF HON. GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Mrs. James Wallace Pinchot, mother of Gifford Pinchot, died yesterday morning at the home of her brother, William P. Eno, at Saugatuck, Conn. She was born September 23, 1837.

Because of the death of his mother Gifford Pinchot, Washington party nominee for United States senator, has cancelled all speaking engagements for this week.

472 ARE KILLED IN SIX MONTHS

Substantial decrease in the number of both fatal and non-fatal accidents on both steam and electric railroads in this state during the first six months of 1914 as compared with the corresponding period of 1913 are reported by the public service commission.

The persistent preaching of "safety first" coupled with the elimination of grade crossings where practicable, appears to be having a direct effect. During the period referred to the total number of accidents was 6,657. Of this number 472 were killed on the steam roads and 71 on the street railways; 4,626 were injured on the steam roads and 1,488 injured on the street railways.

Compared with the first six months

of 1913 there is a decrease of 62 in the number killed on steam railroads and 1,124 in the number injured. On street railways there is a decrease of 27 in the number killed and 153 in the number injured.

Of the fatalities on the steam roads, 148 were employees; 5 passengers and 31 others. The latter class includes 29 accidents at grade crossings. At these places also 91 were injured. During the first six months of 1914 55 were killed and 121 injured.

The number of trespassers killed on the steam roads during the first six months was 285; 295 were injured. Of the fatalities on the street railways, 6 were employees 5 passengers, 5 trespassers and 55 others.

There was 148 employees killed and 3,320 injured on the steam roads, a decrease of 6 in the number killed and a decrease of 973 in the number injured.

Lake Shore Gains.
The Lake Shore, it is estimated, will head the list to the beneficiaries under the 5 per cent. rate increase. The Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, and the Baltimore & Ohio are rated on the estimated list, in the order named.

The new tariffs providing for the increase will likely be filed by the railroads on September 1, to become effective on October 1. Efforts are being made to have them filed that they will be in operation before October 15, according to information derived from Chicago where the tariff heads of the railroads concerned have been in conference during the week. The decimal system will be used in computing the new rates. It will require rate clerks some time to familiarize themselves with the new charges.

THE OTHER SIDE.
The Progress has been in receipt of
several copies of The Fatherland, a publication whose chief object at this time appears to be the stirring up of sentiment in favor of Germany in connection with the war in Europe.
The Progress is an American news-
paper and gives the news of the day
as it is gathered by its local and foreign reporters. If the news of war in Europe is colored to make
appear that Germany is not win-
ing it is not the fault of this paper.
The American people believe that there would have been no war in Europe at present if the Kaiser had
wished war they are not to blame.
Those German-Americans who live in the United States may be pardoned
for hoping that Germany may be successful in her efforts to gain more
power and more territory, but German-Americans have no right to seek
to induce American citizens to take their view of the situation. Neither
could these German-Americans
expect to bring about serious conditions in the United States by conducting a propaganda of open sympathy with Germany at this crisis.

When German, or Englishman or any other alien comes to the United States and becomes naturalized he is expected to conform to the laws and customs of the American people. They are not to be regarded as the rulers of the native lands, and by doing so they could not regard it as their right to bring up strife among American citizens when their native lands become involved in war. There has been enough too much talk of the duty of Americans toward Germany by such publications as The Fatherland. The United States and the people of the United States are neutral in this war,
they propose to remain neutral.

Research and News.

REV. ROBERT C. PETERS

Facts About Kansas.

On July 1, 1913, according to Mr. J. W. Howe, Secretary of the Board of Control of Kansas, 29 Kansas counties had no inmates of their poor houses; 20 had no insane inmates; 61 no feeble-minded; 90 no children and 33 no "other pauper inmates." There were only 812 paupers in all Kansas. Missouri, a license state, with twice the population as Kansas, had three times as many paupers in the county poor-houses, and, according to the last report, 6711 additional cases of county relief of the poor were recorded.

Not only were insane inmates
scarce in the Kansas county institutions, but many counties had no insane in the state asylums.

In a letter to the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, Mr. J. W. Howe, secretary
of the Board of Control, gives this
information:

"The percentage of alcoholic commitments to the state insane hospitals of Kansas is less than three
per cent. as compared to about 31
per cent. in New York, and 30 per cent. in Massachusetts.

"The Board of Control has been
gathering other statistics on the liquor question in Kansas. A direct inquiry to the county clerks of every
district in the state shows
that there were only 766 liquor cor-victions in 1913, which speaks pretty
well for a state with over one million people. These same clerk
reported that only eleven boys and girls under twenty-one years of age
were sent to jail—a remarkable record. There were but 4832 jail prisoners during the entire year."

Again to leave Mr. Howe's manuscript, across the line in Missouri,
with its above the average liquor
state in such matters, there were received in 1910, 12,587 jail prisoners
—twice the population and nearly
three times the number of county
prisoners.

"The best argument for the prohibition law in Kansas is found in the state as a whole," says Mr. Howe.
"Kansas has but few large cities,
but it has the best little towns of any state in the Union. Most of the second-class cities have their business street paved, cement and brick sidewalks, but few frame buildings on the main streets, splendid sewerage, water plants and electric light systems—in fact, all the modern conveniences of a city. These conveniences were generally instituted
about the time that Kansas awoke
to the fact that the joints ought to be put out of business.

Liquor Enslaves Labor.
It is the sober, intelligent, work-
men who fight for better conditions.
It is they who are the best supporters of the staple industries of the country. It is they who give their children a better start in life.
It is they who are self-respecting
and self-confident. When a drinker becomes an abstainer he does not
lower his expenditure, but he increases it. The drinker is satisfied with a miserable existence; the sober workman is always striving to raise his conditions of life.—Phillip

woods, lacking food and all equipment. Judith has meanwhile gone to her camp and sent one of her Indian guides to track Alan. Feeling himself followed, Alan gets more
and more nervous. Finally he slips
over the side of a cliff and falls
into the water. Judith, fishing with the second Indian guide, rescues
the young man and has him taken to
her cabin.

Rose meanwhile receives a note
asking her to visit Alan's lawyer.
She finds that Alan is overdue and
the lawyer is worried. Trine's spy Marrophat, tells him of the note, and Trine accuses Rose of disloyalty.

and Judith's plan to kill him at Spiral Lake. Rose immediately start
for the North despite her father's
angry protests.

Alan has been deep in the ravages of fever, and Judith has nursed
him with an awakening love and tenderness. She sends one of the guides to a nearby village for quinine. He proceeds to get frightfully drunk, and
the next morning she goes after him, cutting the one rose on the bush outside and leaving it near Alan's bed.

and he and Rose are dumped out.
They make the shore in safety, and Judith is about to shoot him when something stops her. Slowly, her face buried in her hands, she drifts
out of sight. Rose, with her quick woman's intuition, guesses that Ju-

CENSORSHIP ON MCGRAW'S ATTACKS ON UMPIRES

BY FRANK G. MENKE.

New York, August 26.—John McGraw is going to have a hard task from now on in locating subjects for his semi-weekly newspaper articles. John used to use up considerable space dwelling on just what he expected his team would do in the world series. But those Boston Braves have messed things up so much, from a New York viewpoint, that John no longer is absolutely sure that he and his'n are going to mingle in that series.

Whenever John lacked other subjects he would devote a column or so to informing the populace that the National league staff of umpires certainly is the worst collection outside of jail. But John can't do that any more. He delivered himself of a bitter arraignment of the umpiring persons a short time ago, saying that President Tener ought to take action. Tener did—but it wasn't the kind of action John demanded or expected.

Tener, instead of firing the whole staff because John didn't like 'em, passed the word to John that now and henceforth John must not say harsh, cruel things about the umpires. Tener, 'tis said, made his order very emphatic, and John has promised to be a nice, refined writer in the future.

Of course, John could use a few columns putting forth alibis but it's a bit too early for John to come to the front with an alibi concerning the loss of the pennant. And John has used up almost every possible alibi to explain the recent slump of the Giants and their indifferent work all season. So, you see, John has a hard job ahead of him thinking up things to write about since Stallings and Tener jointly robbed him of his pet subjects.

Lajoie's case is one that shows that there is no sentiment in baseball. Lajoie was one of the big factors in the making of the American league. For many years he was its brightest star. He drew countless thousands of fans to the parks that he visited during those years, and even now, when his brilliance is fading, some fans go to the park just to see him in action.

Back in 1905 or 1906 it was estimated that Lajoie alone had drawn $500,000 into the American league coffers during the few years he was in the league. That was something like eight or nine years ago, and if those figures are correct, it means that Lajoie, in his dozen years in the American league has drawn at least $1,000,000.

It was only last year that Charlie Somers, owner of the Naps, was quoted as saying:

"Lajoie has a life job with the Cleveland club. We will never sell or trade him. He has made money for me in the years gone by and when he is through as a big leaguer, I shall give him his unconditional release."

And now, less than a year later, the management of the club is trying to shut him off. The club hasn't made money this year and Somers wants to cut expenses. Lajoie is a high-priced man and Somers, in pursuing the retrenchment policy, and harking to the charges made against Lajoie by Manager Birmingham, is willing to let him go—but he won't give him his unconditional release. He wants to sell or trade him, and it seems that he isn't particular whether Larry goes to a minor league outfit or not, just so long as Somers gets his price.

"Rabbit" Maranville, the whirlwind shortstop of the Braves, is in danger of either being arrested or having his nose punched. It's all up to Pete Daley, of the Yanks, as to just what's going to happen "Rabbit." Maranville landed in New York for that memorable three game series ten days ago and found that his bats had been lost in transit. He borrowed the lightest war clubs from his teammates, but none suited him. Finally, he got a "tip" that Daley had a bat in his locker that might prove to his liking. Maranville got the key to the locker and possessed himself of the bat. When the Braves left New York, Daley's bat went along, carefully guarded by Maranville.

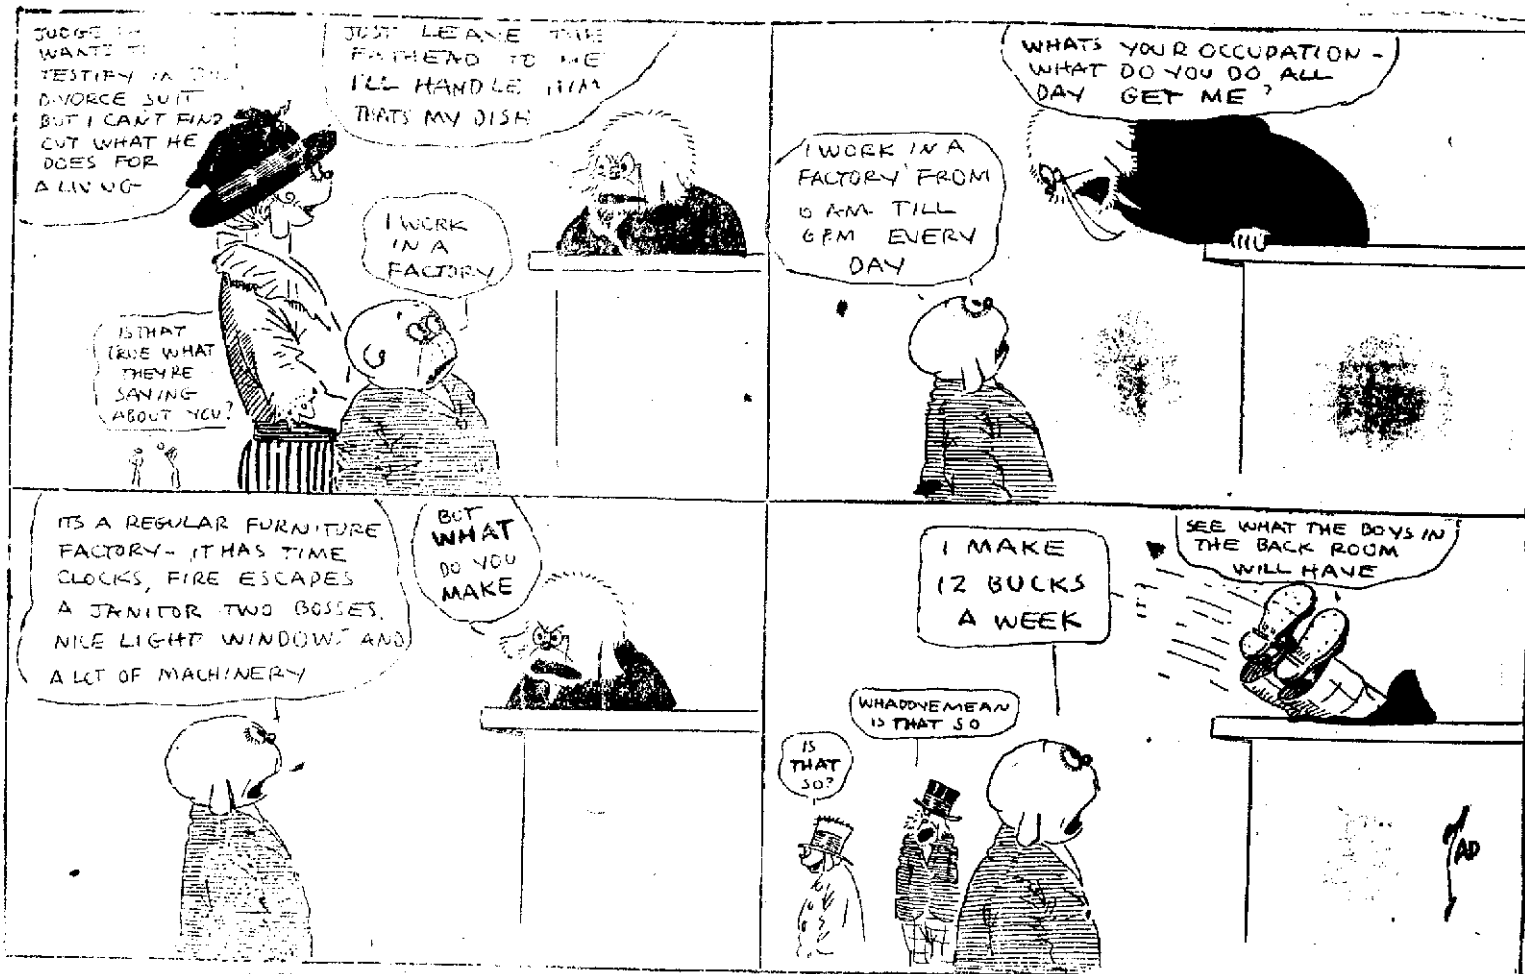

"When Daley gets back tell him I've got his bat and I'm going to keep it," Maranville told the groundkeeper. "I'll pay him for it if he names the price, but he can't have the bat back. It's the best club I ever used and I'll need it in my business more than Daley will in his."

It so happened that Daley had a particular fondness for that same bludgeon and when he learned that Maranville had taken it he set about preparing an ultimatum. The contents have not been made public.

JAPAN'S ENTRANCE INTO WAR.

Pledge Conflict Will Be Confined to Eastern Asia Reassures Washington.

From outward appearances the United States government views with equanimity the entrance of Japan into the European war. The reassuring declarations made to the United States by both Great Britain and Japan to the effect that Japan would confine her military operations against Germany to eastern Asia have done much to calm any fears that may have been felt that the cause of warfare in the Pacific might be extended to Germany, which is the American naval station at Tutuila, and to the other German possessions in the Pacific.

It is believed that President Wilson's address to his fellow countrymen enjoining upon them a strict observance of neutrality will have the effect of discouraging anti-Japanese agitators, and that the American people generally will follow the example of their government in observing the strictest neutrality as between the various combatants.

To Save Art From War. M. Paul Oudet, president of the Union des Associations Internationales of Brussels, says a movement is on foot to induce the United States to obtain the co-operation of the neutral powers of the world in approaching the belligerents to beg them to respect museums of art and scientific collections in the threatened capitals.

War Fever.

OPENS UP NOSTRILS, CLEARS HEAD, ENDS COLDS OR CATARRH AT ONCE

Instantly Relieves Swollen, Inflamed Nose, Head, Throat—You Breathe Freely—Dull Headache Goes—Nasal Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now. Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane, which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasal discharge and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

GERMAN ADVANCE REPORTED HOLTED

Paris, Aug. 26.—The war office has issued the following official announcement:

"The commander-in-chief, requiring all available forces on the Meuse, has ordered the progressive abandonment of occupied territory. Meulhausen has again been evacuated."

A new battle is in progress between Maubeuge and Denain. On it hangs the fate of France. Operations in Alsace along the Rhine would take away troops upon which might depend victory. It is necessary that they all withdraw from Alsace temporarily, in order to assure its final deliverance. It is a matter of hard necessity.

Missing of the Troops.
"West of the Meuse, as a result of orders issued on Sunday by the commanding chief, the troops which are to remain on the covering line to take up the defensive are massed as follows:

"The French and British troops occupy a front passage near Givet, which they gained by hard fighting. They are holding their adversaries and sharply checking their attacks."

"East of the Meuse our troops have regained their original positions commanding the roads out of the great forest of Ardennes."

Assumed the Offensive.

"To the right we assumed the offensive, driving back the enemy by a vigorous onslaught, but General Joffre stopped pursuit so as to re-establish his front along the line decided upon on Sunday. In this attack our troops showed admirable dash. The Sixth corps, notably, inflicted punishment on the enemy, close to Virton."

"In Lorraine the two armies have begun a combined attack, one starting from Grand Couronne de Nancy, and the other from south of Lunéville. The engagement, which began yesterday (Monday), continues at the time of writing. The sound of cannonading is not heard at Nancy, as it was Monday."

Report 25,000 Germans Surrounded

London, Aug. 26.—Dispatches report desperate fighting on Monday between outposts of the Germans and the allies at Oudenarde and Renais, in East Flanders. The losses were heavy on both sides. Twenty-five thousand Germans have been surrounded between Courtail and Anseghem, a town six miles west of Oudenarde. Fighting was progressing Sunday at Perennes, between Mons and Pinche, and between Wateghem and Oudenarde.

Arrivals in Brussels from Liege

state that many houses there were burned last week. German soldiers have inscribed on the walls of the city "William II, emperor of Europe."

German Scouts Near Antwerp.

Antwerp, Aug. 26.—Despite official Belgian statements to the contrary, German scouts appeared at Tervuren, nine miles from Antwerp today.

Whitlock Protests.

London, Aug. 26.—An Antwerp dispatch says Brand Whitlock, American minister to Belgium, has sent an energetic protest to the German government against the throwing of bombs into Antwerp.

Fierce Fighting at Ostend.

London, Aug. 26.—An Ostend despatch to the Daily News says that, fierce fighting is in progress between the Uhlans and Belgian gendarmes north of the city. Many hundreds of wounded soldiers are being brought into the city on motor cars.

Celebrates Independence Day.

Brussels, Aug. 26.—With her field bloodied in the general conflict of European powers, Belgium yesterday celebrated her "Independence day." Yesterday was the anniversary of the revolution in 1830 which resulted in the independence of the nation.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel backache or have bladder trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels, removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, nervousness, your stomach sour, tongue coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then at once and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

SUSPECTS ELUDES DUBOIS OFFICERS

DuBois Paper's Story.

The DuBois Express says of the chase:

An exciting man chase took place Monday evening about 9 o'clock at the C & M junction, when local authorities participated in a search for a man by the name of Sana, who is suspected of committing a murder in Clearfield on Sunday morning.

A telegram was received from the chief of police addressed to Chief Jeffreys, notifying the local officer that a man answering the description of Sana had been seen boarding a New York Central freight train headed for DuBois.

Plans Proved Futile.

Chief Jeffreys organized a posse to go after him. As it was believed that the New York Central train would be held up at the C & M junction and the suspected man given an opportunity to escape it was determined to go to the junction in machines and search the freight. It was arranged to have the conductor stand on the top of the car where the suspect was. The plans were nicely laid for the capture, but through some misunderstanding the stopping point of the train was overlooked and the freight pulled by the watchers at a fast pace and did not stop for fully half a mile beyond Chief Jeffreys and his assistants, including Burgess Haag, did a marathon down the track to where the train had stopped, and proceeded to make a search. They rounded up about fifteen travelers and all of them were given the "once over," but none answered to the description of the wanted man.

Took to the Fields.

It was ascertained from the engineer that a man who spoke with an Italian accent and in broken English, had darted from the train as soon as it stopped and had started away over the fields. With this meagre information the chief and his assistants started on a cross country search, extending for several miles. They ploughed through creeks, ravines, fields, haystacks, etc., and searched a large number of barns in that vicinity but no trace of the fugitive was found.

OBITUARY

Alfred Bilger, of Curwensville, father of Mrs. Walter Welch, Clearfield, Minnie Welch, of Clearfield, and and brother of Geo. M. Bilger, also so this place, died at his home in Curwensville Sunday, aged about 65 years. The funeral was yesterday afternoon.

ALLIES SAID TO HAVE CHECKED RUSH OF THE KAISER'S TROOPS

Indications Are That a Large Force of English is in Lorraine

APPALLING CONFLICT IS AGAIN RAGING

French War Office Claims That Several Positions From Which the Allies Had Been Driven in Previous Fights Have Been Recaptured From the Germans—English Reinforcements Being Rushed to France—German Scouts Near Antwerp—American Minister to Belgium Protests Against Throwing of Bombs Into Antwerp from Aeroplanes—25,000 German Troops Said to be Surrounded by Soldiers of the Allies.

(By International News Service.)

London, Aug. 26, 3:51 P. M.—It is officially announced that Togoland (Germany's South African possession) surrendered to the British today, unconditionally.

London, Aug. 26.—With France's fate officially admitted as hanging in the balance the appalling conflict is again raging in southwestern Belgium, with Charleroi as the pivotal scene of carnage.

The allies opened offensively, pounding away at the German lines north of the river Sambre. Three fleets of Zephelins are reported hovering in the background, awaiting the word to strike.

Uhlans are reported rushing toward Douai, France, 18 miles over the border. It is expected that the French and British detachments there are already giving them battle.

The Germans, with three of the Namur forts in their possession are thundering at the remaining works. Fierce hand-to-hand conflicts marked the brunt of the battle at Charleroi between Prussian guards and French Turcos—Algerian troops.

England Needs More Troops. Premier Asquith stated in parliament today that "Lord Kitchener needs all the men he can get. It is a mistake to think that only 100,000 men are needed."

Answering other questions, the premier said the British soldiers would not be compelled to go abroad.

Belgian Minister Protests. Washington, Aug. 26.—Minister Havenith, of Belgium, requests Secretary Bryan to protest to Germany against further Zephelein bombardments of Antwerp, claiming that this is a violation of the Hague convention. Secretary Bryan said he would consider the request, but without endangering America's neutrality. The protest is based on a cable reciting Zephelein activity, saying that, besides the dead and wounded, the material damage is enormous.

German Prince Killed. Berlin, Aug. 26.—Lieutenant General Prince Frederick, of Saxe Meiningen, was killed by the bursting of a shell at Namur on August 23.

Allies Assume Aggressive. Paris, Aug. 26.—It was officially announced today that "British reinforcements are coming to France." This revives discouraged Paris.

It was also announced that the allies have resumed the aggressive in Lorraine.

This is the first mention of the allies as being in Lorraine, indicating that the British expedition is much larger than is generally known. Public feeling is at a high tension because it is known that the misconduct

Holy War Threatened by the Musselmans

(By International News Service.) Washington, Aug. 26.—There is uneasiness in official circles over information from Ambassador Morgenthau, at Constantinople, that Turkish Musselmans are threatening a Holy war. It is feared the European upheaval may bring about the massacre of Christians in Turkish dominions. Great restlessness in the Mohammedan world is reported.

The warships North Carolina and Tennessee may be rushed to the Bosphorus, as Europe is practically powerless to act in the matter.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS IN REUNION AT GRAMPAN

The annual reunion of the union soldiers and sailors of Clearfield county was held at Grampian yesterday. There was a large attendance from all over the county. The dinner for the visitors was prepared by the women of Grampian and was good in every respect.

After the dinner exercises were held at the platform, presided over by W. P. Mahaffey. The exercises were opened with a prayer. The address of welcome was given by H. E. Clarey, a Spanish-American war veteran, and the response by J. A. Johnson, of DuBois, a civil war veteran. Addresses were made by Rev. Hawkins, the Baptist minister of Curwensville, Hon. Frank G. Harris, Esq., and by A. H. Woodward, Esq. The music was furnished by the Grampian band and a choir selected for the occasion.

The general opinion was that the reunion was one of the finest and most successful that has ever been held.

GERMANS IN TOGOLAND READY TO SURRENDER

(By International News Service.) London, Aug. 26.—Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons this morning that the Germans in Togoland, Africa, have offered to capitulate on certain terms. "We have demanded unconditional surrender," Asquith added. "Our troops occupy the important position."

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD FLOWER SHOW ON FRIDAY

The Woman's club will hold a flower show on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The show will be held at the public playground, if the weather is favorable, but if the day is rainy it will be held in the High school building.

Early in the spring flower seeds were given to about 30 children to plant and raise flowers for the contest to be held in the late summer, and the club is now ready for it. Everyone is invited to be present, and all the members of the club are especially urged to attend the show.

Ship Sails With Guns on Decks

(By International News Service.) Hoboken, N. J., Aug. 26.—The Wilson liner, San Francisco, under the British flag with a cargo of six thousand tons, principally grain, sailed for Hull, England, today.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AND IMMENSE PARADE

The convention of the Clearfield County Sabbath School association, which opened at Osceola Mills on Tuesday is attracting large crowds daily. The proceedings of Tuesday afternoon were full of inspiration for the delegates and visitors, the review of the work of the year by the president of the association, "Notes of the Field" by Rev. O. B. Poulson, and the other papers were very interesting.

The big parade last evening was a spectacle such as Osceola has seldom seen. Over 300 persons were in line and three bands furnished music. The speaker of the evening was Rev. George G. Rowley, of Lewisport. The singing was under the direction of Prof. Weaver, who was with Evangelists Johnson during the tabernacle meetings. The event will long be remembered by those who participated in the demonstration. The program of the convention today was an interesting one, papers on topics pertaining to work in the Sunday schools being read and addresses made by prominent leaders in Sabbath school activities.

FIRST ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE FRENCH TROOPS NEARING THE BELGIAN BORDER. These photographs, just received in the United States, are the first to show the French troops moving toward the Belgian border. They were taken at exactly the same place and show two different sections of the vast army France threw into Belgium. The troops were snapped in northern France, a few miles from the border line of Belgium.

BRITISH SAILORS KILLED IN TSING-TAU ATTACK

Combined English and Japanese Naval Assault Vigorously Resisted by the Germans Within Fort

GERMAN DESTROYERS PREVENT APPROACH

A Telegram From Peking States That the Attack of the British and Japanese Has Failed and That a Regular Siege Would Have to be Started—Unpleasantness at Washington Over the Probable Extension of Japanese Activities Beyond the Orient—Filipinos Fear That the Japanese May Make Trouble for Them in the Southern Pacific.

(By International News Service.) Peking, Aug. 26.—The Germans in resisting the combined Japanese-British naval attack on Tsing-Tau, killed a number of British torpedo flotilla sailors, one shell striking the destroyer Kenne, damaging it and killing three.

The attacking warships are unable to get close to the place on account of the German destroyers.

The Japanese are still landing troops at Haiyanghsien for a land attack in the rear.

Attack Said to Have Failed.

New York, Aug. 26.—Count Von Bernstorff, German ambassador to America, today received an official telegram from Peking announcing that the Japanese attack on Kiaochow has failed.

"In consequence, the dispatch says, 'they must start regular siege operations.'"

Washington Worried. Washington, Aug. 26.—The Japanese government may be drawn into the war outside of the Far East, according to an attaché of the Japanese embassy. He said: "Despite Japan's announcement to the United States that she would not engage in the war outside of the Orient, the chances are that if her ally, England, needs assistance elsewhere, it will be a difficult matter for us to refuse to extend assistance."

The issuance of another proclamation of neutrality by the United States is being considered to cover the declaration of war between Japan and Germany. A change in the verbiage in this proclamation is being considered.

Germans Well Fortified. Although Japan sent a note to the German colony in Kiaochow, asking surrender to prevent bloodshed, it today appeared that bombardment would be necessary before the fort would surrender. Japan is rushing two fleet and one hundred thousand troops to attack Tsing-Tau by land and water. The Germans have thrown out barbed wire entanglements and mined all approaches.

Filipinos Are Afraid. Manila, Aug. 26.—Japanese action against Kiaochow is intimidating the Filipinos and is creating widespread unrest among them. The natives fear that the United States will become involved in the European war as a result of Japan's action.

The political leaders among the Filipinos are now apathetic regarding the Jones bill, introduced in congress in Washington and providing for a greater measure and self-government in the Philippines.

AUSTRIANS THROUGH BARRIERS OVER THE RIVER SAVA

Nish, Serbia, Aug. 26, via London.—Serbian troops recaptured Nish (Shabatz) at 4 o'clock this afternoon of Monday, August 25, according to official announcements made today.

The Austrians have been thrown back on the other bank of the River Sava, and every bit of Serbian territory has now been cleared of the enemy. The announcement noted that the retreating Austrians devastated Serbian villages and murdered the inhabitants.

THE GERMAN FLEET HAS BEEN LOCATED AT LAST.

(By International News Service.) Paris, Aug. 26.—Official confirmation from Hamburg today that the German fleet in the Kiel canal near the island of Heligoland. Torpedo boats and destroyers were guarding the coast.

Vienna is in Fear of Musselmans

Rome, Aug. 26, via London.—The Italian government today reported that the Austrian government had received information from Constantinople that the Turkish Musselmans are threatening a Holy war.

The Austrian government is reported to be in a state of alarm, and is taking steps to strengthen its defenses.

Russians in Fear of Musselmans

Washington, Aug. 26.—Continued Russian and Serbian dispatches are officially reported by the French embassy here.

The Russians are pursuing the offensive with great energy in Galicia. They routed the Austrian cavalry divisions yesterday. The Serbs took out of the Austrians and captured the Serbians.

Reports of the Russian advance are being received from the front. The Russian army is making rapid progress.

472 ARE KILLED IN SIX MONTHS

Substantial decrease in the number of both fatal and non-fatal accidents on both steam and electric railroads in this state during the first six months of 1914 as compared with the corresponding period of 1913 are reported by the public service commission.

The persistent preaching of "safety first" coupled with the elimination of grade crossings where practicable, appears to be having a direct effect. During the period referred to the total number of accidents was 6,657. Of this number 472 were killed on the steam roads and 71 on the street railways; 4,626 were injured on the steam roads and 1,488 injured on the street railways.

Compared with the first six months

of 1913 there is a decrease of 62 in the number killed on steam railroads and 1,124 in the number injured. On street railways there is a decrease of 27 in the number killed and 153 in the number injured.

Of the fatalities on the steam roads, 148 were employees; 5 passengers and 31 others. The latter class includes 29 accidents at grade crossings. At these places also 91 were injured. During the first six months of 1914 55 were killed and 121 injured.

The number of trespassers killed on the steam roads during the first six months was 285; 295 were injured. Of the fatalities on the street railways, 6 were employees 5 passengers, 5 trespassers and 55 others.

There was 148 employees killed and 3,820 injured on the steam roads, a decrease of 6 in the number killed and a decrease of 973 in the number injured.

Lake Shore Gains.

The Lake Shore, it is estimated, will head the list to the beneficiaries under the 5 per cent. rate increase. The Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, and the Baltimore & Ohio are rated on the estimated list, in the order named.

The new tariffs providing for the increase will likely be filed by the railroads on September 1, to become effective on October 1. Efforts are being made to have them filed that they will be in operation before October 15, according to information derived from Chicago where the tariff heads of the railroads concerned have been in conference during the week. The decimal system will be used in computing the new rates. It will require rate clerks some time to familiarize themselves with the new charges.

Good evening! There's no place like home these evenings—after the day's close.

guilty flee when no man pur-
Where has Santa Saia gone

If French and British commanders gin to blame each other for dis-the Germans will find their much easier.

German news is filtering through at ment, and it is news that sends a cold wave up and down the spinal columns of the English.

The government officials say they able to find a food trust in New York. Certainly, the food trust a matter than government officials.

Despite the fact that the loss from in this town is almost nil, we hear of the fire underwriters to the front with an anouncement that the rates of fire insurance will be reduced in Clearfield.

THE OTHER SIDE.

The Progress has been in receipt of
several copies of The Fatherland, a
publication whose chief object at this
time appears to be the stirring up of
sentiment in favor of Germany in connection with the war in Europe.
The Progress is an American news-
paper and gives the news of the day
as it is gathered by its local and foreign reporters. If the news of war in Europe is colored to make
appear that Germany is not win-
ing it is not the fault of this paper.

The American people believe that
there would have been no war in Europe at present if the Kaiser had
wished war they are not to blame.
These German-Americans who live in
the United States may be pardoned
in hoping that Germany may be successful in her efforts to gain more
power and more territory, but German-Americans have no right to seek
to induce American citizens to take
their view of the situation. Neither
could these German-Americans
be expected to bring about serious conditions in the United States by conducting a propaganda of open sympathy with Germany at this crisis.
When German, or Englishman or
any other alien comes to the United States and becomes naturalized he is expected to conform to the laws and customs of the American people. They are expected to swear allegiance to the rulers of their native lands, and by doing so they cannot regard it as their right to take up strife among American citizens when their native lands become involved in war. There has been enough too much talk of the duty of Americans toward Germany by such publications as The Fatherland. The United States and the people of the United States are neutral in this war,
they propose to remain neutral.

PENROSE IN R.A.D.

backward in letting Penrose's campaign managers know it.

At Scranton there is a likelihood that the Sportsman's club will be disintegrated because some of Penrose's friends in the camp proposed to give a banquet in his honor. Already several of the members of the club have resigned because they believe that the club should not be used as a means to exploiting Penroseism. In other parts of the state organizations have failed to show appreciation of the honor that was sought to be forced upon them by having Penrose appear before the members and talk politics.

The bad taste of Penrose's lieutenants in demanding that he shall have a chance to discuss political questions at social gatherings does not appear to have been considered by his campaign managers. But the people who will have a chance to vote for United States senatorial candidates are likely to resent the brazen attempt of the agent of special privilege to turn their social affairs into political carnivals.

IN COLD STORAGE.

According to the statement of the Pennsylvania state food commissioner there are one hundred and seven-five million eggs in cold storage in this state. These eggs are stored by commission men for the purpose of speculation. They have been bought at a nominal price and will be thrown on the market next winter at an advance which will give the commission men a big profit.

Eggs are a substitute for meat in many house holds. They sell in Clearfield at thirty cents a dozen at present.
Meat prices in some parts of the country have been reduced, but still many people in Clearfield are able to buy choice steaks and prefer eggs. The fact that there are millions of eggs in cold storage does not cause these people to have a very high regard for a government which permits gamblers in foodstuffs to rob
the people.

Facts About Kansas.

On July 1, 1913, according to Mr.
J. W. Howe, Secretary of the Board of Control of Kansas, 29 Kansas counties had no inmates of their poor houses; 20 had no insane inmates; 61 no feeble-minded; 90 no children
and 33 no "other pauper inmates."
There were only 812 paupers in all Kansas. Missouri, a license state, with twice the population as Kansas, had three times as many paupers
in the county poor-houses, and, according to the last report, 6711 additional cases of county relief of the
poor were recorded.

Not only were insane inmates
scarce in the Kansas county institutions, but many counties had no insane in the state asylums.

In a letter to the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal
church, Mr. J. W. Howe, secretary
of the Board of Control, gives this
information:

"The percentage of alcoholic commitments to the state insane hospitals of Kansas is less than three
per cent. as compared to about 31
per cent. in New York, and 30 per cent. in Massachusetts.

"The Board of Control has been
gathering other statistics on the liquor question in Kansas. A direct inquiry to the county clerks of every
district in the state shows
that there were only 766 liquor cor-
victions in 1913, which speaks pretty
well for a state with over one
million people. These same clerk
reported that only eleven boys and
girls under twenty-one years of age
were sent to jail—a remarkable record. There were but 4832 jail prisoners during the entire year."

Again to leave Mr. Howe's manu-
script, across the line in Missouri,
with its above the average liquor
state in such matters, there were received in 1910, 12,587 jail prisoners
—twice the population and nearly
three times the number of county
prisoners.

"The best argument for the prohibition law in Kansas is found in the state as a whole," says Mr. Howe.
"Kansas has but few large cities,
but it has the best little towns of
any state in the Union. Most of the second-class cities have their
business street paved, cement and
brick sidewalks, but few frame buildings on the main streets, splendid
sewerage, water plants and electric
light systems—in fact, all the modern
conveniences of a city. These conveniences were generally instituted
about the time that Kansas awoke
to the fact that the joints ought to
be put out of business.

Liquor Enslaves Labor.

It is the sober, intelligent, work-
men who fight for better conditions.
It is they who are the best supporters of the staple industries of
the country. It is they who give
their children a better start in life.
It is they who are self-respecting
and self-confident. When a drinker
becomes an abstainer he does not
lower his expenditure, but he increases it. The drinker is satisfied
with a miserable existence; the
sober workman is always striving to
raise his conditions of life.—Phillip Snowden, M. P.

The London Times remarked a great many years ago that if the liquor trade is doing harm its magnitude is the greatest argument against it.

"THE TREY O' HEARTS" OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

The second installment "White Water," shows Alan alone in the woods, lacking food and all equipment. Judith has meanwhile gone to her camp and sent one of her Indian guides to track Alan. Feeling
himself followed, Alan gets more
and more nervous. Finally he slips
over the side of a cliff and falls
into the water. Judith, fishing with
the second Indian guide, rescues
the young man and has him taken to
her cabin.

Rose meanwhile receives a note
asking her to visit Alan's lawyer.
She finds that Alan is overdue and
the lawyer is worried. Trine's spy
Marrophat, tells him of the note, and Trine accuses Rose of disloyalty.

until she finds papers acknowledging Trine's trickery toward Alan,
and Judith's plan to kill him at Spiral Lake. Rose immediately start
for the North despite her father's
angry protests.

Alan has been deep in the ravages of fever, and Judith has nursed
him with an awakening love and tenderness. She sends one of the guides
to a nearby village for quinine. He proceeds to get frightfully drunk, and
the next morning she goes after
him, cutting the one rose on the
bush outside and leaving it near Alan's bed.

Shown at the opera house this evening.

"A Frontier Romance," a frontier drama, with Dolly Larkin and J. J. Franz. The leading man has been badly wounded in mistake for a beard. Dolly, the leading woman, re- fuses the leading man, remembering the days when Joe left her with the promise to return. There is a robbery in the neighborhood. Joe, the bandit, sees Dolly, repents, re- turns the stolen money, and joins Dolly to start life anew. At the opera house this evening.

He awakes, finds himself alone, and gets up weakly. Judith and her guide, pass Rose and the trapper with her unknowingly. When the latter arrives at the cabin Alan thinks the mystified girl for nursing him.

Rose has sent her trapper to warn her lover of Judith's approach. He does, and she persuades Alan to launch a canoe and go away with her.

They push off as Judith and her Indian run into the clearing. Alan is almost successful in threading the white water, when his paddle breaks
and he and Rose are dumped out.
They make the shore in safety, and
Judith is about to shoot him when
something stops her. Slowly, her
face buried in her hands, she drifts
out of sight. Rose, with her quick
woman's intuition, guesses that Judith has commenced to love Alan.
Together the two start towards civilization, leaving Judith alone with the guides.

CENSORSHIP ON MCGRAW'S ATTACKS ON UMPIRES

BY FRANK G. MENKE.

New York, August 26.—John McGraw is going to have a hard task from now on in locating subjects for his semi-weekly newspaper articles. John used to use up considerable space dwelling on just what he expected his team would do in the world series. But those Boston Braves have messed things up so much, from a New York viewpoint, that John no longer is absolutely sure that he and his'n are going to mingle in that series.

Whenever John lacked other subjects he would devote a column or so to informing the populace that the National league staff of umpires certainly is the worst collection outside of jail. But John can't do that any more. He delivered himself of a bitter arraignment of the umpiring persons a short time ago, saying that President Tener ought to take action. Tener did—but it wasn't the kind of action John demanded or expected.

Tener, instead of firing the whole staff because John didn't like 'em, passed the word to John that now and henceforth John must not say harsh, cruel things about the umpires. Tener, 'tis said, made his order very emphatic, and John has promised to be a nice, refined writer in the future.

Of course, John could use a few columns putting forth alibis but it's a bit too early for John to come to the front with an alibi concerning the loss of the pennant. And John has used up almost every possible alibi to explain the recent slump of the Giants and their indifferent work all season. So, you see, John has a hard job ahead of him thinking up things to write about since Stallings and Tener jointly robbed him of his pet subjects.

Lajoie's case is one that shows that there is no sentiment in baseball. Lajoie was one of the big factors in the making of the American league. For many years he was its brightest star. He drew countless thousands of fans to the parks that he visited during those years, and even now, when his brilliance is fading, some fans go to the park just to see him in action.

Back in 1905 or 1906 it was estimated that Lajoie alone had drawn $500,000 into the American league coffers during the few years he was in the league. That was something like eight or nine years ago, and if those figures are correct, it means that Lajoie, in his dozen years in the American league has drawn at least $1,000,000.

It was only last year that Charlie Somers, owner of the Naps, was quoted as saying:

"Lajoie has a life job with the Cleveland club. We will never sell or trade him. He has made money for me in the years gone by and when he is through as a big leaguer, I shall give him his unconditional release."

And now, less than a year later, the management of the club is trying to shut him off. The club hasn't made money this year and Somers wants to cut expenses. Lajoie is a high-priced man and Somers, in pursuing the retrenchment policy, and harking to the charges made against Lajoie by Manager Birmingham, is willing to let him go—but he won't give him his unconditional release. He wants to sell or trade him, and it seems that he isn't particular whether Larry goes to a minor league outfit or not, just so long as Somers gets his price.

"Rabbit" Maranville, the whirlwind shortstop of the Braves, is in danger of either being arrested or having his nose punched. It's all up to Pete Daley, of the Yanks, as to just what's going to happen "Rabbit." Maranville landed in New York for that memorable three game series ten days ago and found that his bats had been lost in transit. He borrowed the lightest war clubs from his teammates, but none suited him. Finally, he got a "tip" that Daley had a bat in his locker that might prove to his liking. Maranville got the key to the locker and possessed himself of the bat. When the Braves left New York, Daley's bat went along, carefully guarded by Maranville.

"When Daley gets back tell him I've got his bat and I'm going to keep it," Maranville told the groundkeeper. "I'll pay him for it if he names the price, but he can't have the bat back. It's the best club I ever used and I'll need it in my business more than Daley will in his."

It so happened that Daley had a particular fondness for that same bludgeon and when he learned that Maranville had taken it he set about preparing an ultimatum. The contents have not been made public.

JAPAN'S ENTRANCE INTO WAR.

Pledge Conflict Will Be Confined to Eastern Asia Reassures Washington.

From outward appearances the United States government views with equanimity the entrance of Japan into the European war. The reassuring declarations made to the United States by both Great Britain and Japan to the effect that Japan would confine her military operations against Germany to eastern Asia have done much to calm any fears that may have been felt that the cause of warfare in the Pacific might be extended to German Samoa, which is the American naval station at Tutuila, and to the other German possessions in the Pacific.

It is believed that President Wilson's address to his fellow countrymen enjoining upon them a strict observance of neutrality will have the effect of discouraging anti-Japanese agitators, and that the American people generally will follow the example of their government in observing the strictest neutrality as between the various combatants.

To Save Art From War.
M. Paul Oudet, president of the Union des Associations Internationales of Brussels, says a movement is on foot to induce the United States to obtain the co-operation of the neutral powers of the world in approaching the belligerents to beg them to respect museums of art and scientific collections in the threatened capitals.

War Fever.

I used to think that Jones was strong within the law's domain. But now I know that I was wrong—His forte's Alsace-Lorraine.

And Smith (another sudden blow)—His hobbies, I was sure, Were golf and cigarettes, but not They're Brussels and Namur.

And Brown, so reticent before, Now keeps waylaying me To mobilize whole army corps Of words—on strategy!

And Green, who thought the one best bet Was peace, is now, alas! Continually storming Meiz Armed with a dominose.

And Johnson—hat enough of spite! The worst of all I am. For on a tablecloth last night I drew a diagram!

OPENS UP NOSTRILS, CLEARS HEAD, ENDS COLDS OR CATARRH AT ONCE

Instantly Relieves Swollen, Inflamed Nose, Head, Throat—You Breathe Freely—Dull Headache Goes—Nasal Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now. Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane, which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasal discharge and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

GERMAN ADVANCE REPORTED HOLTED

Paris, Aug. 26.—The war office has issued the following official announcement:

"The commander-in-chief, requiring all available forces on the Meuse, has ordered the progressive abandonment of occupied territory. Meulhausen has again been evacuated."

A new battle is in progress between Maubeuge and Denain. On it hangs the fate of France. Operations in Alsace along the Rhine would take away troops upon which might depend victory. It is necessary that they all withdraw from Alsace temporarily, in order to assure its final deliverance. It is a matter of hard necessity.

Missing of the Troops.
"West of the Meuse, as a result of orders issued on Sunday by the commanding chief, the troops which are to remain on the covering line to take up the defensive are massed as follows:

"The French and British troops occupy a front passage near Givet, which they gained by hard fighting. They are holding their adversaries and sharply checking their attacks."

"East of the Meuse our troops have regained their original positions commanding the roads out of the great forest of Ardennes."

Assumed the Offensive.

"To the right we assumed the offensive, driving back the enemy by a vigorous onslaught, but General Joffre stopped pursuit so as to re-establish his front along the line decided upon on Sunday. In this attack our troops showed admirable dash. The Sixth corps, notably, inflicted punishment on the enemy, close to Virton."

"In Lorraine the two armies have begun a combined attack, one starting from Grand Couronne de Nancy, and the other from south of Lunéville. The engagement, which began yesterday (Monday), continues at the time of writing. The sound of cannonading is not heard at Nancy, as it was Monday."

Report 25,000 Germans Surrounded

London, Aug. 26.—Dispatches report desperate fighting on Monday between outposts of the Germans and the allies at Oudenarde and Renais, in East Flanders. The losses were heavy on both sides. Twenty-five thousand Germans have been surrounded between Courtail and Anseghem, a town six miles west of Oudenarde. Fighting was progressing Sunday at Perennes, between Mons and Pinche, and between Wateghem and Oudenarde.

Arrivals in Brussels from Liege state that many houses there were burned last week. German soldiers have inscribed on the walls of the city "William II, emperor of Europe."

German Scouts Near Antwerp.

Antwerp, Aug. 26.—Despite official Belgian statements to the contrary, German scouts appeared at Tervuren, nine miles from Antwerp today.

Whitlock Protests.

London, Aug. 26.—An Antwerp dispatch says Brand Whitlock, American minister to Belgium, has sent an energetic protest to the German government against the throwing of bombs into Antwerp.

Fierce Fighting at Ostend.

London, Aug. 26.—An Ostend despatch to the Daily News says that, fierce fighting is in progress between the Uhlans and Belgian gendarmes north of the city. Many hundreds of wounded soldiers are being brought into the city on motor cars.

Celebrates Independence Day.

Brussels, Aug. 26.—With her field bloodied in the general conflict of European powers, Belgium yesterday celebrated her "Independence day."

Yesterday was the anniversary of the revolution in 1830 which resulted in the independence of the nation.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel backache or have bladder trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels, removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, nervousness, your stomach sour, tongue coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then at once and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

SUSPECTS ELUDES DUBOIS OFFICERS

DuBois Paper's Story.

The DuBois Express says of the chase:

An exciting man chase took place Monday evening about 9 o'clock at the C & M junction, when local authorities participated in a search for a man by the name of Sana, who is suspected of committing a murder in Clearfield on Sunday morning.

A telegram was received from the chief of police addressed to Chief Jeffreys, notifying the local officer that a man answering the description of Sana had been seen boarding a New York Central freight train headed for DuBois.

Plans Proved Futile.

Chief Jeffreys organized a posse to go after him. As it was believed that the New York Central train would be held up at the C & M junction and the suspected man given an opportunity to escape it was determined to go to the junction in machines and search the freight. It was arranged to have the conductor stand on the top of the car where the suspect was. The plans were nicely laid for the capture, but through some misunderstanding the stopping point of the train was overlooked and the freight pulled by the watchers at a fast pace and did not stop for fully half a mile beyond Chief Jeffreys and his assistants, including Burgess Haag, did a Marathon down the track to where the train had stopped, and proceeded to make a search. They rounded up about fifteen travelers and all of them were given the "once over," but none answered to the description of the wanted man.

Took to the Fields.

It was ascertained from the engineer that a man who spoke with an Italian accent and in broken English, had darted from the train as soon as it stopped and had started away over the fields. With this meagre information the chief and his assistants started on a cross country search, extending for several miles. They ploughed through creeks, ravines, fields, haystacks, etc., and searched a large number of barns in that vicinity but no trace of the fugitive was found.

OBITUARY

Alfred Bilger, of Curwensville, father of Mrs. Walter Welch, Clearfield, Minnie Welch, of Clearfield, and and brother of Geo. M. Bilger, also so this place, died at his home in Curwensville Sunday, aged about 65 years. The funeral was yesterday afternoon.
